DAY 3: Chile's Lake District Exploration

Immerse yourself in the natural wonders of the region surrounding the lodge with a wide array of captivating hiking and trekking excursions. Accompanied by our knowledgeable guides, embark on unforgettable journeys through national parks that unveil stunning forests, glistening bodies of water, enchanting waterfalls, and invigorating hot springs. Marvel at the awe-inspiring terrain of majestic volcanoes adorned with snow-capped peaks as you trek through the picturesque trails of Villarrica National Park, located near the border of Argentina and Chile. Alternatively, explore the remarkable ecological diversity of Huerquehue National Park, where every step unveils a new marvel. Discover the vibrant cultural heritage of the region as you delve into the ancestral land of the Mapuche people, known for their brave resistance against Inca and Spanish invaders. Embark on a captivating cultural journey with a visit to Dona Rosario's Ruka (house) in the local Mapuche community. Witness the traditional method of roasting organic wheat and indulge in the delicious flavors of her homemade cuisine. Engage in an active and immersive experience by participating in a game of Palin, a traditional Mapuche stick and ball game originating from southern Chile. Continue your exploration by meeting Sandra Rojas, a talented artisan, and exploring her colorful factory where she skillfully works the loom, showcasing her remarkable craftsmanship.

DAY 4: Depart Vira Vira Lodge

This morning you will be collected from the lodge and transferred to Temuco Airport for your onward flight.
