DAY 3: Bellavista Lodge to Middle of the World to Quito

This morning you will be met at Bellavista Lodge by your private guide and enroute back to Quito you will stop at the Equatorial Monument, 25km (16 miles) north of Quito, which marks the exact middle of the World, Latitude 0°, where you can stand with a foot on each hemisphere. A certificate for having crossed the Equator is issued to each guest. The surrounding, volcanic scenery is stunning and you can choose to either visit the Ethnographic Museum or the Inti Ñan Museum, both located near the site of the monument. As part of your tour we will include lunch at a local restaurant. We will also include an Agave experience (subject to availability & closed on Mondays) or a stop at a local coffee farm. Casa Agave is one of the only places in Ecuador to grow the Agave plant and you will be able to enjoy a tasting of their award winning locally produced mezcal. In the event this is not available you will be able to do a coffee experience where you will learn about the roasting process and sample some of the delicious local brew. Please note that this transfer is on a private basis with a local English speaking guide. You will be collected from Bellavista and do the tour en route back to Quito. At the end of the tour you will be dropped at your hotel in Quito. We do not recommend that you book flights to depart on this day.
